May Jesus and Mary be loved by all hearts!

Joyous Christmastide

Blessed New Year and Solemnity of the Mother of God!

Happy Epiphany!

2024 looks very bright for great beginnings of the Order of the Mother of God

Publish a Book and Broadcast the Order!

Her new spiritual director in the Diocese of Madison has urged Mary [aka "Sister Anne"] to prioritize the publication of the French-to-English translations of books on LaSalette, as a means of letting people know that Our Lady gave a Rule for a new Order, and vocations can apply now! St. Nicholas sent the gift (on his feast) of Catholic publishers in New Orleans. They speak French and can personally negotiate the copyrights with the publishers in France! They've asked Mary to read aloud the final book review to generate an audio-book besides the paperback editions.

The Website is Looking Beautiful!

David has worked many hours to develop a fresh layout and write new code. Our goal has been to streamline the steps required each time a new item is posted. Mary has built all new icons which require less memory and will load faster at each "click."

Consider joining our "Podcasting" Theotokans!

David's beautiful new layout offers instant access to 25 years of videos, audios and digital texts of Mary's Messages through Father Gobbi.

Thanks to the efforts of our volunteer readers, people can listen to these messages while they drive or sit in an adoration chapel. The English collection is nearly complete and our new Theotokan in Madrid has already recorded three years of messages in Spanish. We are working on the ideal platform to reach an audience in Español. Would you or a friend consider reading chapters of Marian books?
