May Jesus and Mary be loved by all hearts!

News from the House

Greetings as we prepare for the feast of LaSalette!

A great deal is happening with the new Order of the Mother of God. Community life could begin very soon. During the novena this month, please thank Our Lady of LaSalette for the good candidates that She's been sending!

Sept 11-18- Novena to Our Lady of LaSalette

We invite you, and all Theotokans, to invoke the Mother of God during the nine days before the Feast of LaSalette. Among your personal intentions, please pray that we can provide living space for candidates as soon as possible.

Children's Books by Catholic Women I know

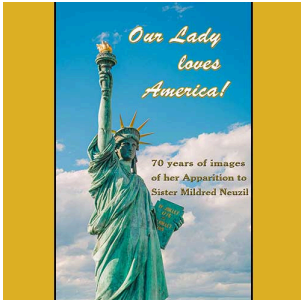

This summer, two more of my friends, Cindy DeWinter and Kimberly Wohead published a children's book. Please help spread the word by sharing this short video that gives an overview of 3 excellent books that make heaven feel close to children and young readers.

False Prophet: Barnabas Nwoye

For 20 years I've been in search of the identity of Barnabas Nwoye. The illicit 2001 Imprimatur on his Precious Blood prayerbook has led countless Catholics, including myself, to assume that the prayers are from messages approved by his bishop. I can now affirm to you that Barnabas is a false prophet, and these messages are not from heaven.

Our Lady Loves America

“Sister Anne” continues to gather information on “Our Lady of America” aka “Our Lady, Patroness of America.” You might enjoy these collections of images.

Protestant Prophets: Jonathan Cahn and Bo Polny

“Sister Anne” recommends these two Protestants, precisely because they are not prophets, but good Scripture scholars who offer special insights regarding our times. She is not suggesting that you adapt their interpretations. You can appreciate their knowledge, while continuing to be guided by Our Lady, Queen of Prophets.

“Well, my children, you will pass this on to all my people!”
