

May Jesus and Mary be loved by all hearts!

(April 2021)

Blessed Paschaltide to everyone!

The great Easter Octave is upon us! I encourage everyone to make get to Confession and Communion to claim the Divine Mercy pardon this Sunday. A clean heart will make the Illumination a more positive experience. You can go to confession before Sunday. Saint Faustina made her confession on the Saturday before Divine Mercy Sunday (Diary 1072). The Poles have always understood Him to mean that confession was not necessarily required on the day itself but to be in a state of grace, no mortal sin.,

My daughter, tell the whole world about My inconceivable mercy. I desire that the Feast of Mercy be a refuge and a shelter for all souls, and especially for poor sinners. On that day the very depths of My tender mercy are open. I pour out a whole ocean of graces upon those souls who approach the fount of My mercy. The soul that will go to Confession and receive Holy Communion shall obtain complete forgiveness of sins and punishment. On that day are opened all the divine floodgates through which graces flow. Let no soul fear to draw near to Me, even though its sins be as scarlet. -- Diary #699

Things are going well in New Orleans. We are meeting new friends who want to become Lay Theotokans. We are uploading new videos, overseeing new volunteer French translators, and working on the Constitutions. Thank you for all your prayers! We miss our friends in Wichita, but the internet keeps us connected. Here are some recent uploads

It was embarrassing to forget my script, which I had worked hard at because I wanted to get it “just right” for a new audience (at St. Dominic’s) that was important to me. Many people (like you!) were praying for me, and I believe that night was my “baptism” into public speaking. I never had the confidence to talk without a detailed script because I was afraid I would wander off on irrelevant tangents and get tangled up. After the talk on Tuesday night, 15-20 people personally came up to me insisting that I had a gift for public speaking and I was very effective, whereas if I had read to them from a paper, it would have seemed far less personal and compelling. This is a blessing, as this Order develops. I shot a mini-series in one day to address some prophecies that are leading people into confusion.
