

Dear Friends and Lovers of Mary!

If you have a few moments you could you put in a good word? A bishop in southern Louisiana has invited me for an interview Thursday, September 2nd. Friends will encourage him to view my recent RadioMaria interview with Penny Antill before Thursday. This would be a great introduction and I wouldn't have to unload a freight train of information on him in our first meeting. Would you consider logging in to YouTube and adding a comment to a video so that he'll have an extra good impression?
